2024 Collegiate Academic Award Honorees Announced

The United States Fencing Coaches Association is pleased to announce the 2024 slate of NCAA Fencing Academic awards. The USFCA recognizes the individual student-athletes and teams based on their combined Fall and Spring semester GPAs (or Fall and Winter quarter GPAs). The USFCA All-Academic Team includes 536 student-athletes with 326 receiving recognition as Scholars of Distinction. All-Academic Team honors are presented to those student-athletes at member institutions who had an in-season GPA of 3.3 or higher. Scholar of Distinction honors are presented to those student-athletes at member institutions who had an in-season GPA of 3.7 or higher.

Twenty-two women's teams and fifteen men's teams received All-Academic recognition for their combined in-season team GPA. Duke University received the Women's Scholar Team of the Year Award with a USFCA-best team GPA of 3.83, just ahead of the University of Pennsylvania with a 3.815 GPA and Brown University with a 3.8 GPA. Brandeis University received the Men's Scholar Team of the Year Award with a USFCA-best team GPA of 3.7, just ahead of Vassar College with a 3.67 GPA and Duke University with a 3.61 GPA.
