

Kit's Secret Sauce: The recipe to growing and sustaining a great fencing club.

Instructor: Kit Boesch, founder, coach, fencer of Lincoln Fencing Club

Clinic description: The Lincoln Fencing Club is an ever-growing club in the heart of America. We recently celebrated 42 years of growth; classes continue to grow; and our Board of Directors is strong. The key for us has been understanding components to our success and how to sustain them.

- To develop and harvest the passion of people and the sport
- To recognize the value of existing community resources
- To be inclusive at every level
- To recognize the dangers & pitfalls before they occur

As Vince Lombardi would say . . . “the measure of who you are is what you do with what you have”

Total number of instructional hours: 1.0

Textbook and materials:

- Suggested: 1. A notebook

Inclusivity and Accessibility statement:

This clinic is committed to following the commitment to inclusivity and accessibility espoused by the USFCA. Specifically, students from diverse backgrounds and perspectives will be welcomed and served by this course, students' learning needs will be addressed both in and out of class, and diversity that the students bring to this class be viewed as a resource, strength and benefit. It is my intent to present materials and activities that are respectful of diversity: gender identity, sexuality, disability, age, socioeconomic status, ethnicity, race, nationality, religion, and culture. Presentations will be accessible to individuals with mobility disabilities, and will mitigate the effects of other disabilities that might present a barrier to attendees.
